Company Description:

Cabin Creek Films has produced many award-winning nonfiction films including Harlan County USA, American Dream, Wild Man Blues, My Generation, A Conversation with Gregory Peck and Shut Up & Sing. Our nonfiction productions for television include Gun Fight, The House of Steinbrenner, Woodstock: Now and Then, Fallen Champ: The Mike Tyson Story, Disney's Friends for Life: Living with AIDS, and ABC's The Hamptons.

Intern Description:

Cabin Creek Films is currently in production on several nonfiction projects. Some projects are in the development phase and others are in full swing production and post-production.

This internship is office based. The intern will receive training in and be responsible for transcribing shot tapes, logging footage, general and archival research and assisting with coordinating shoot logistics. Other duties include messenger runs and occasional office upkeep. When possible the intern will be invited to accompany and assist production crews on local shoots.

Commitment:

We require a minimum commitment of 2 days per week (11AM – 7PM) from interns. The duration of the internship will be approximately three months.

Compensation:

$20/day for meals and transportation. School credit is available.
